Notes

Lily first attended training at 16th Street Youth Program where she finally felt like she had found like minded people and could express her emotional self. Continuing her training at NIDA after graduating high school, helped her feel more equipped and confident with her training and her ability to act.

Lily has a diversity and range in her acting skills, and is so enthusiastic about meeting new people and creating wonderful art through film. Lily enjoys being on set and believes that every one should be treated with kindness and respect.
