Notes

Zoe is best known for her role as Abra Bacon in the upcoming Netflix TV series East of Eden, set to premiere in late 2025. She is a versatile performer with training across multiple disciplines in the acting industry. Her experience includes the Meisner Technique, "Creating Compelling Drama & Authentic Characters" under Tony Ayers' Masterclass, dialect coaching with Tyler Coppin, and screen acting with Jasper Baggs. Most recently, she has begun further professional development at Film and Television Studio International, focusing on Acting for Television.

Outside of acting, Zoe is an avid traveler who finds inspiration in nature. She has a deep passion for the arts, particularly Studio Arts, where she expresses herself through painting, drawing, photography, and music.

From a young age, Zoe studied musical instruments such as piano and drums, and remains active in sports like basketball and netball. In addition to performing, she also enjoys scriptwriting alongside her peers. Zoe is highly motivated, curious, and always eager to take on new challenges—embracing every opportunity to grow creatively and personally.
